Narrative Summary

Since founding the Applied Language and Speech Sciences PhD Program at UL Lafayette in 2001, Oller's peer-reviewed books (3 of them) and articles (37) have focused on representational systems from genetics to human language. In 2010 he published a substantial theoretical treatise in Entropy titled "The antithesis of entropy: Biosemiotic communication from genetics to human language with special emphasis on the immune systems." Current theoretical and empirical work is focused on biosemiotic entropy leading to disorder, disease, and death — recently published as a series in the physics journal Entropy. Oller's research shows that the success of social interactions (see the work in Discourse Processes 2005) and of the communications on which biochemistry and health depend is ultimately a question of getting abstract symbols connected to their intended material objects in the right sequences and stereoscopic arrangements. He is the first and principal author of Cases: Introducing Communication Disorders Across the Life Span (Plural Publishing, 2010), Autism: the Diagnosis, Treatment, & Etiology of the Undeniable Epidemic (Jones & Bartlett parent company to Allied Health, 2010), and of Milestones: Normal Speech and Language Development Across the Life Span (Plural Publishing, 2006; second edition, 2014).

Oller's work shows that human development from the womb forward, advances through critical milestones more rapidly than thought possible until about 2004. Video from Dr. Stuart Campbell (Create Health Clinic in London) shows that unborn babies take steps, scratch, jump, smile, and do many things during fetal development that were formerly thought to be reserved to post-birth activities. Live video of babies after birth, from Dr. Robert C. Titzer, also shows that they can acquire comprehension of printed words and phrases before being able to say the words aloud — and well before their first birthday. Titzer's claim has been confirmed by Bergelson and Swingley \(2012\). Additional advances include reclassification of communication disorders across the board on a more comprehensive, simpler, and more consistent basis grounded in the sign systems affected rather than coincidental symptoms or concomitant factors.

Oller is a regular reviewer for technical journals (including Pediatrics), publishers, the National Science Foundation, the Department of Education, the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada, in communication disorders, assessment, linguistics, language teaching, and related fields. Increasingly, in recent years his theoretical work (on the general theory of signs) has attracted attention from geneticists, toxicologists, and biochemists. It is now evident that all disorders and disease conditions involve interference with biochemical processes through one or several of the following five factors: toxins, disease agents, radiant energy and force fields, physical injuries, and interactions between any and all of these. Oller has served as an invited guest in national and international forums discussing the foregoing issues and has been a frequent reviewer/contributor to PhD programs in the health sciences as well as applied language sciences. He has appeared in nationally syndicated internet webinars, YouTubes, television, and radio programs and has traveled and lectured in England, Denmark, Spain, Germany, Egypt, Israel, Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Thailand, Singapore, Mexico, Quebec, Cyprus, and Canada. He has mentored 43 doctoral dissertations, served on 84 doctoral dissertations, and has published technical work with 89 students and faculty colleagues. After completing his Ph.D. on child language at the University of Rochester in New York on an NDEA Fellowship in 1969 Oller went to UCLA where he was accelerated to tenure and the Associate Professorship in 1971. He founded the Linguistics Department at the University of New Mexico in 1972; was a member of the Examiner's Committee for the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) 1971-1976; received the MLA Mildenerger Medal in 1984; and was one of "100 Stars" honored at the Fresno City College Centennial in 2010. His doctoral students occupy positions of distinction at universities in California, Georgia, Hawaii, Louisiana, Pennsylvania, and Texas as well as Thailand, Korea, Japan, and Germany to name only a few. See the list at the end of this CV.

Education

Xfer, Fresno City College; Fresno, California; concentrations in Spanish and wrestling, 1963.

B. A., California State University; Fresno, California; majors in Spanish and French, minor in education, 1965 (Magna Cum Laude, Phi Beta Kappa).

G. S. C., General Secondary Teaching Credential, California State University; Fresno, California, 1966.

M. A., University of Rochester; Rochester, New York; General Linguistics, 1968.

Ph. D., University of Rochester; General Linguistics, 1969.

Grants and Contracts

1. Perpetual grant from the Board of Regents of the State of Louisiana, Departmental Excellence Through Faculty Excellence (DEFE) grant to Oller $880,000 in 2011, aiming to ensure National Pre-eminence for the Department of Communicative Disorders and Its Applied Language and Speech Sciences Ph.D. Program ($80,000 from the year 2000 forward, renewed each year in perpetuity to enhance salaries for five departmental positions).
2. Sertoma Club of Lafayette granted $30,000 supplemented by an additional $2,000 from UL Lafayette and $1,000 from the Lafayette Convention and Visitors Commission to host the Sertoma International Conference on Autism Spectrum Disorders April 12-14, 2007 (see comments from participants at <http://www.ucla.edu/~jxo1721/Autism07.html>).
3. Matching Grant of $17,260 from Sertoma International and the Sertoma Club of Lafayette to conduct research on biomedical protocols for the treatment of autism spectrum disorders (approved April 23, 2007; initiated October 6, 2008).
4. Seoul National University, Development of 1,000 items for the Criterion Referenced English Placement Test, $13,500, 1996.
5. Korea Research Foundation Nondirected Fund, Relation Between First and Second Language Proficiency in Bilingual Subjects on Verbal and Nonverbal IQ Tests, $15,000, 1995-1998.
6. Public Service Company of New Mexico Distinguished Educators Program, to study Teaching Quality (its evaluation), $4,300, 1991.
7. National Endowment for the Humanities, Lecture Series on Multicultural Education in the Southwestern United States, $5,000, 1974.

Honors and Awards

1. Fresno City College "100 Stars for 100 Years" on August 11, 2010; a hundred individuals were selected for the FCC Centennial from approximately 1.5 million former faculty, alumni, and staff. Politicians, athletes, coaches, and a few academics were honored for their achievements. Oller was one of two academics honored.
2. Community Service Award for 2009 from the Autism Society of Acadiana.
3. Sertoman of the Year 2006 for outstanding service to the Cajun community and the Sertoma Club of Lafayette.
4. Elected to Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi, University of Louisiana Chapter, February 14, 2001.
5. Elected to the New York Academy of Sciences, 1984.
6. Winner of the Mildenerger Medal \(Mildenerger Prize\) offered by the Modern Language Association, for the best book on language instruction published in 1983; awarded in December 1983 for Methods that work.
7. NDEA Title IV Fellowship, University of Rochester 1966-1969.

Dissertation

The coding of information in natural languages: a psycholinguistic theory. Advisor, Professor Dean H. Obrecht (Department of Languages and Linguistics; University of Rochester; Rochester, New York).

Employment History (Retrospective from the Present)

2004 -present Doris B. Hawthorne/Board of Regents Support Fund Endowed Professor IV at UL Lafayette

2004 -1997 Head of Department of Communicative Disorders, and Director, Doris B. Hawthorne Center for Special Education and Communicative Disorders, at the University of Louisiana.

July 1997-1980 Professor of Linguistics (with cross appointment in the Department of Educational Foundations), University of New Mexico, Albuquerque.

Summer 1995 Professor at the Linguistic Society of America Summer Linguistic Institute in Albuquerque, New Mexico; taught courses on semiotic theory and applications of semiotic theory (assisted by former doctoral student Jack S. Damico).

Summer 1989: Visiting Professor at the Linguistic Society of America/Modern Language Association Summer Institute in Tucson, Arizona.

Spring 1984: Visiting Professor at the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA); taught advanced seminar in language testing.

Summer 1980: Associate Director for TESOL of the LSA/TESOL Summer Institutes at the University of New Mexico; and Professor in language assessment and intelligence.

Summer 1979: Visiting Professor, First Annual TESOL Summer Institute, UCLA.

1979-1977: Associate Professor of Linguistics and Educational Foundations, University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Summer 1977: Visiting Professor, Department of English as a Second Language, Concordia University; Montreal, Province of Québec, Canada.

1977-1976: Distinguished Visiting Professor, Department of Linguistics and Center for English as a Second Language, Southern Illinois University; Carbondale, Illinois.

1976-1972: Chairman, Department of Linguistics, and Associate Professor of Linguistics and Educational Foundations, University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Spring 1972: Director of the Communication Arts Program II; Southwestern Cooperative Educational Laboratory; Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Winter 1971: Associate Professor of English, UCLA.

Summer, Fall, Winter, Spring 1969-1971: Assistant Professor of English, and Director of the UCLA English as a Second Language Placement Examination.

Fall & Summer 1968: Graduate Assistant, Conversational Spanish, Summer Language Institute, University of Rochester.

Summer 1967: Research Assistant, Foreign Language Learning Project, Phonetics Laboratory, University of Rochester.

1966-69: NDEA Title IV Fellow; University of Rochester.

1965-66: Instructor in Spanish, Fort Miller Junior High School; Fresno, California.

Working Grant Proposals

1. Applying a Scale of Normal Developmental Milestones to Autism (PA 10-158). $1.8M submitted fall 2010 to National Institutes of Health (National Institute of Child Health and Development) (under revision).
2. Piloting the Scale of Autism Spectrum Disorders. $121,000 (not funded but eligible for resubmission) requested in direct and indirect costs over a two-year period. Submitted to the National Institute of Mental Health.

Professional Papers and Lectures

1. July 13, 2012. Refining the autism diagnosis and the judgment of the efficacy of treatments with the Milestones Scale of Development. Texas Autism Research Conference, at the University of Texas, Austin (with Dr. S. D. Oller, and S. N. Oller, MS, CCC-SLP).
2. May 31, 2011. Pragmatic information. Invited lecture presented at the Cornell University, Symposium on Biological Information: New Perspectives, Ithaca, NY.
3. March 17, 2011. Of epidemic proportions: Autism and cause. Invited International Webinar hosted by Suzanne Humphries, MD, and the International Medical Council on Vaccination. <http://www.vaccinationcouncil.org/2011/03/17/autism-vaccines/>
4. November 25, 2009. Pragmatic mapping and the neuroarchitecture of the human brain. Invited presentation presented at the Institute for Cognitive Sciences at the University of Louisiana. Lafayette, LA.
5. November 21, 2009. Language acquisition and functioning in children with agenesis of the corpus callosum. Poster presented at the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association Annual Convention, with Linda C. Badon, Shalini Arehole, and Kayla O'Connor. New Orleans, LA.
6. May 12, 2009. Comparing behavioral intervention with dietary changes in treating autism. Invited lecture presented at the New Iberia/St Martin Parish Support Groups for the Autism Society of Acadiana, New Iberia, LA.
7. November 21, 2008. Autism spectrum disorders: Reliability data for an ASD assessment based on representational capacity. Short course

- (three hours) presented at the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association Annual Convention, with Stephen D. Oller and Stacy A. Oller. Chicago, IL.
8. November 20, 2008. Intervention for ASDs using the client's representational capacity. A two-hour paper presented at the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association Annual Convention, with Stacy A. Oller, and Stephen D. Oller. Chicago, IL.
 9. November 20, 2008. A case study of complete agenesis of the corpus callosum and its impact on speech and language development. Poster presented at the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association Annual Convention, with Linda C. Badon, Shalini Arehole, Kayla O'Connor, and Hope Taylor. Chicago, IL.
 10. November 25, 2008. Vaccines, Epidemic Neurodevelopmental Disorders, and Autism: Causes and Recoveries. Colloquium presented for the general public and the PhD Colloquium of the Applied Language and Speech Sciences Program at UL Lafayette, in F. G. Mouton Hall.
 11. September 16, 2008. Vaccines and the Epidemic of Neurodevelopmental Disorders, and Autism. Invited public lecture presented on behalf of the Autism Society of Acadiana at the New Iberia Public Library.
 12. June 27, 2008. Documenting recovery from autism. Poster presented at the 12th Meeting of the International Clinical Linguistics and Phonetics Association, Istanbul, Turkey, with Evra Gunhan-Senol.
 13. March 24-28, 2008. Comments on Immigration and US Public Education. Presented at a special Colloquium of the American Education Research Association on the Socio-Historical Perspective on ESL Immigrant Students in US Public Schools organized by Dr. Virginia Gonzalez: An Invited AERA08 Presidential Symposium. New York City.
 14. April 12, 2007. Purpose of Autism07. Position paper for the Sertoma International Conference on Autism Spectrum Disorders. Paper presented at the University of Louisiana, Cajundome Convention Center, Lafayette, LA.
 15. February 21, 2007. Language Proficiency Testing in Rhode Island K-12. Invited 2-hour seminar presented at the State Department of Education in Providence, Rhode Island. .
 16. April 12, 2006. Key milestones in language development from conception to maturity. Lecture presented to the Staff Development Committee of the Edith Garland Dupré Library at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette.
 17. November 18, 2006. Implications of the McGurk Effect for Assessment, Diagnosis, and Intervention. Two hour paper presented at the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association Annual Convention, Miami, Florida, with Stephen D. Oller, Linda C. Badon, and Shalini Arehole.
 18. November 18, 2006. Bridging the Gap from DDST Norms to Children in Southwest-Louisiana. Poster presented at the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association Annual Convention, Miami, Florida, with Linda C. Badon, Stephen D. Oller, Ruixia Yan, and Erica Johnson.
 19. November 17, 2006. Disproportionate Representation of Language Minorities in Disordered & Gifted Programs. Short Course presented at the presented at the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association Annual Convention, Miami, Florida, with Ruixia Yan, Linda C. Badon, and Stephen D. Oller.
 20. November 16, 2006. Building Bridges from Comprehension to Reading to Speech. Short Course presented at the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association Annual Convention, Miami, Florida, with Stephen D. Oller, and Linda C. Badon.
 21. July 20, 2006. The Comprehensibility of the Universe and the Language Capacity. Invited lecture presented at the national Graduate Mentorship Workshop for Ph.D. candidates in the sciences held at Mississippi State University in Starkville, Mississippi.
 22. July 14, 2006. Language Capacity and Intelligence: True Representations at the Foundation. Invited lecture presented at the International Information Forum in Hebron, Kentucky.
 23. December 2, 2005. When Lives Hang in the Balance. Invited Keynote address for the International Conference at Kaohsiung City, Taiwan on "Understanding L2 Learners: Special Issues", Kaohsiung City, Taiwan, with Ruixia Yan.
 24. July 28, 2005. Milestones in Impaired and Unimpaired First Language Acquisition: Why the Sequence Cannot Easily Be Violated. Paper presented at Tenth International Congress for the Study of Child Language, half hour session, with Stephen D. Oller & Liang Chen, at the Frie University of Berlin, Henry Ford Building, Berlin, Germany.
 25. November 11, 2004. Is Mercury Poisoning a Factor in the Increasing Prevalence of Diagnosed Autism Spectrum Disorders? Poster presented at the Geneva Centre for Autism, 10th International Symposium on Autism, 11-12 November 2004, Toronto.
 26. June 4, 2004. Contextual vs. surface elements in literacy instruction. Two hour lecture presented at the Louisiana Speech Language and Hearing Association with Linda C. Badon. Lafayette, Louisiana, Hilton Inn.
 27. June 4, 2004. Assessment of spectrum disorders: Diagnosis, therapy, etiology. One hour lecture presented at the Louisiana Speech Language and Hearing Association with Stephen D. Oller and Liang Chen. Lafayette, Louisiana, Hilton Inn.
 28. February 25, 2004. Autism spectrum disorders and language acquisition. Keynote address at the 10th International Clinical Phonetics and Linguistics Association Meeting in Lafayette, LA.
 29. May 3, 2003. The Scale of Autism Spectrum Disorders: Etiology, diagnosis, and intervention. Louisiana Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology 7th Annual Continuing Education Workshop, 3 hour presentation. Baton Rouge, Holiday Inn South. Organizers Suzanne Pevey and Judy Graham.
 30. May 28, 2003. Episodic organization and valid measurement. Paper presented at the Quantitative Linguistics Conference in Athens, GA (co-authored by Liang Chen presented by Oller).
 31. February 16, 2003. Episodic organization in tests of comprehension. Presented at the Georgetown University Round Table on Languages and Linguistics in Washington, D.C. with Liang Chen.
 32. November 22, 2002. ADHD and medication: A survey of SLP knowledge. Poster at ASHA in Atlanta, GA, with S. D. Oller and Jack S. Damico.
 33. November 21, 2002. Literacy knowledge: Surveying SLP literacy theory and practice. Poster at ASHA in Atlanta, GA with R. Nelson & J. S.D. Damico.
 34. February 22, 2002. Valid Assessment of Language Competence: An invited Workshop Prepared for the Department of American Sign Language and Interpreter Education at the Rochester Institute of Technology in Rochester, New York.
 35. April 27, 2002. Introducing the scale of autism spectrum disorders. Invited lecture presented on behalf of the Louisiana Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology at the 6th Annual Continuing Education Workshop in Baton Rouge, Louisiana at the Holiday Inn.
 36. November 16, 2001. Language assessment in stuttering research: Is it natural. A poster presentation at the Speech-Language-Hearing

- Association meeting in New Orleans, Louisiana with John A. Tetnowski, Kelly A. Daniel, Margaret Brasseaux, & Jack S. Damico.
37. October 24, 2001. Dyslexia and English as a second language (including bilingualism): Issues, research, diagnosis, instruction, and future directions. Symposium at the Albuquerque Convention Center, New Mexico with L. Ganschow, E. Duran, E. Geva, L. Peer, and R. L. Schwarz at the 52nd Annual Conference of the International Dyslexia Association.
 38. November 2000. Descriptive analysis of autistic behavior: Two practical protocols. Paper presented with J. S.D. Damico and Lilly Stiegler November 2000 at the annual meeting of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association, Washington, DC.
 39. May 19, 2000. Verbal and non-verbal abilities in language minorities: Studies with children and adults. Invited keynote address for the Midwest Association of Language Testers in Iowa City, Iowa, at the Iowa Memorial Union, University of Iowa, Iowa City.
 40. May 12-June 2, 2000. Theory and research in SLA. Invited three week short course on second language acquisition to launch new Ph.D. program at the University of Iowa, in Iowa City.
 41. April 24, 2000. Verbal and nonverbal skills in marginal bilingualism. Invited paper at American Educational Research Association (Organizer Dr. Virginia Gonzalez, chaired by Theresa Austin, and with discussant Evangeline Stefanakis) in New Orleans.
 42. November 20, 1999. Interpreting problematic behaviors: Forced adaptations as conceptual and diagnostic criteria. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association in San Antonio, Texas with Jack S. Damico and Nancye Roussel.
 43. Collaboration in building pragmatic maps of the world, keynote address at the Chulalongkorn International Conference on Collaboration: Towards Excellence in the New Millennium, in Bangkok, Thailand, December 1, 1999.
 44. Scaffolding and language acquisition, invited workshop presented at the Chulalongkorn International Conference on Collaboration: Towards Excellence in the New Millennium, in Bangkok, Thailand, December 2, 1999.
 45. Panel discussion with Fred Davidson, Jack Richards, David Nunan, and others to wrap up the Chulalongkorn International Conference on Collaboration: Towards Excellence in the New Millennium, in Bangkok, Thailand, December 3, 1999.
 46. Toward improved diagnosis of autistic disorders: Indices as the key. Short course (three-hours, peer reviewed) presented with Dr. Jack S. Damico at the annual meeting of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association in Boston, Massachusetts, on November 21, 1998.
 47. Teaching and testing through authentic episodes. Invited workshop (following up the lecture) presented at the 24th Annual Illinois TESOL-BE Annual State Convention. Chicago, Illinois at Navy Pier, April 4, 1998.
 48. The logic of true narratives. Paper presented with Dr. Steven Collins at the Meeting of the Evangelical Theological Society in Santa Clara, California on November 20, 1998.
 49. Biblical history as true narrative representation. Paper presented with Dr. Steven Collins at the Meeting of the Evangelical Theological Society in Santa Clara, California on November 20, 1998.
